Dear Harold,

I made some inquiries of some knowing Eleanor Matson and they knew nothing about her training as an investigative reporter, in fact they didn't think Eleanor had ever worked. I know she was at Univ. of Del. Women's College for a year, and married Alden Holsinger who was a teacher at Goldey's Business School. I really think the person making inquiries about you but whom you never saw must have been another Eleanor Matson. Incidentally Eleanor died last August of heart failure.

The Wilmington High classes of 1931 are going to start planning in the fall for our 55th reunion next spring. You will receive notice of arrangements in due time and we hope you will be able to come. Since the reunion we have been able to locate addresses of a few more classmates, and heard of the death of 12.

Jim sends his best to you.

Sincerely,

Elizabeth
